WARNER'S SAFE REMEDIES

WARNER'S SAFE PILLS

Are an immediate and active stimulus for a Torpid Liver, and cure Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Billous Diarrhœa, Malaria, Fever and Ague, and should be used whenever the bowels do not operate freely and regularly.

Their action is gentler than that of other pills, and at the same time more effective. No other pills require such small doses for thorough work.

They have been used with great success in the English army where Malaria prevails, and are the best antidote for all kinds of Malarial Poison.

People who live or work in unhealthy places, and those of sedentary habits, should use them. Taken at bed-time, they promote rest and bring on natural evacuations the next forenoon.

They do not act directly on the bowels, but indirectly through the liver, by causing it to secrete the necessary bile, and should always be preferred to pills which operate as a violent cathartic, causing nausea and weakness.

Price, 25 cents a Box.

WARNER'S SAFE NERVINE

Quickly gives Rest and Sleep to the suffering, cures Headache and Neuralgia, prevents Epileptic Fits, and relieves Nervous Prostration brought on by excessive drink, over-work, mental shocks and other causes.

Powerful as it is to stop pain and soothe disturbed nerves, it never injures the system, whether taken in small or large doses.

It often arrests the progress of serious diseases by the recuperative rest which it produces, and is beneficial in all painful diseases.

Warner's Safe Nervine is the improved discovery of the most skillful nerve doctor of the world, and an inestimable blessing to all who suffer. Bottles of two sizes: prices, 50 cts. and $1.00.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff.)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE. See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CHARLES WILSON,
se5dw Secretary, Barkerville, B.C.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE

QUESNELLE QUARTZ MINING COMPANY (LIMITED.)

THE DIRECTORS OF THE QUESNELLE QUARTZ Mining Company at the end of their term of office submit the following report for your consideration:—

During the mining season of 1879 a shaft was sunk on No. 2 location to a depth of 114 feet from the surface, the size of the shaft being 7 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear. The shaft runs through rock which had to be blasted the entire distance; it has been thoroughly timbered throughout and is secure and commodious.

At 100 ft. from the surface a cross-drive 5 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear was run. At a distance of 33 ft. from the shaft it cut into a body of quartz, on which a level was run 20 ft. The quartz extracted was found to be much broken and mixed with bedrock, doubtless caused by the movement of the country rock which has apparently broken and disintegrated the vein at that level.

A 5-stamp quartz mill has been purchased and erected, the cost of which was greatly enhanced by the unavoidable expense and difficulty attached to moving heavy machinery for a distance of 90 miles through a rough country where no roads or trails existed.

Forty tons of quartz were worked in the mill producing 103 ounces of bullion, which sold for $1256 67.

The directors are of opinion that it is advisable to sink the shaft at least 250 ft. deeper before running any cross-drifts. To accomplish this it will be necessary to place steam power on the mine; they therefore recommend that the funds of the Company be first devoted to that purpose and that arrangements be made for the purchase of engine and pumps of the requisite capacity and to place them on the ground with as little delay as possible.

The improvements made by the Dominion Government in the Cottonwood Canon will enable boats capable of carrying machinery to reach a point within 9 miles of the mine; a road thence to the mine could be constructed, which would enable machinery to be placed on the ground at a reasonable cost.

The accounts of the Company have been carefully audited; an abstract thereof is herewith given:

From the foregoing it will be seen that there are debts or liabilities owing by the company.

The property of the company is estimated at $10,346 46, a value that would not exceed the cost of replacing it under favorable circumstances.

Since work was suspended last fall everything at the mine has been under the charge of a caretaker at an expense of $75, the only other expense incurred during the last winter being those necessary for advertising, etc, the secretary having performed the duties of his office without remuneration. Neither the auditors nor directors are or were under pay at any time.

THE POSTOFFICE FRONT.

A New Style of Tendering.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST—SIR:—Tenders were called for the 28th August for the repair of the postoffice front—Mr. Tiedeman being the architect; but they were deemed too high, the proposed front being nearly all of stone. New tenders were called for the 4th September, Mr. Tiedeman fixing the time limit (verbally) "at next spring," adding that he would not have the roof touched this winter. On the 7th, when the contracts should have been signed, he said the first of March allowed time enough to finish up the job. What can be thought of an architect who will tell one party that if they got the job he will alter the specifications so that they can put the stones as far through the wall as they liked; but if another party gets it, then he will make them put the stones all the way through the wall, as the specifications call for? "I wants my revenge." On Monday the 6th, Mr. Clark, who has now secured the job, made no secret of telling every bid that had gone in. Where did he get his information from? No one would suspect anyone in Hon. Mr. Trutch's office. That gentleman would always like to see fair play. Then how did Mr. Clark come by the figures? Had he the power to summon little spirits to convey the news as soon as the tenders were opened? On the 7th inst. Mr. Carroll was called on to sign the contract, he being the lowest tenderer, and (as before stated) Mr. Tiedeman said the 1st of March was plenty of time. He did not sign as the time was too short for him. Now, then, why was not Mr. Galley sent for, he being the next lowest, only $60 above Mr. Carroll. On Wednesday the 8th, tenders were called for the third time to be sent in on the 10th. There were no alterations of plan, and the tenders of the 4th stood as follows:—Kinsman & Styles, $8,600; Smith & Clark, $8,600; William Galley, $8,400, Henry Carroll, $8,340. W. Galley sent in a note stating that his tender of the 4th would stand good as there was no alteration of plan. Kinsman & Styles did the same. Smith & Clark dropped their bid from $8,600 to $7,975—that is, if rumors are correct; but we have no exact means of knowing. Since Clark has got the job there is no one able to call up spirits to give the information. Another advantage that the contractor has got since the contract was signed is that the occupants are to leave the building while it is being repaired, which is a very great advantage. Nearly all the mechanics in town are talking about this matter and feel thoroughly disgusted with the whole affair. They are not surprised at the part Mr. Tiedeman has played, and they now call attention to it in the hope that a strict inquiry into the circumstances will be made.

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY held their Annual Meeting on the 6th inst., and as has been customary in previous years, it affords me much pleasure to indicate on this occasion the prominent features of the very satisfactory report which the Directors were enabled to render of our transactions during the past year. It will, I am sure, be gratifying to our agents to know that the success which has hitherto characterized the operations of the "Royal" continues unabated—a fact which will be appreciated at once on a perusal of the following brief resume of the figures appearing in the report.

In the FIRE BRANCH the net premium income amounted to £779,318, and a profit has been realized of £142,140. The aggregate of premium received in the LIFE BRANCH amounted to £247,194, and as the result of the quinquennial investigation which has just taken place in this department a handsome surplus was found to have accrued for division amongst the assured and the shareholders, of which the proportion (⅔ths) payable to the policy-holders is £233,213, the balance, say, £79,404, going to the shareholders.

The funds of the Company have at the same time been materially strengthened, the sum of £100,000 having been added to the general reserve fund and £59,708 to the Life Funds, while the balance at the credit of the Profit and Loss Account has been augmented by £51,727.

The Dividend granted to the Shareholders amounted to £120,613, or upwards of 41. per cent. on the paid up capital, and the various funds of the Company now stand as follows:—

Capital Paid up	£ 289,645
Fire Fund	500,000
Reserve Fund	900,000
Balance of Profit and Loss	121,434
Life Funds	2,449,615
	£4,260,595

It will be interesting to our Agents to learn that the "Royal" is now the wealthiest known Fire Insurance Company in the world, and this circumstance will doubtless constitute a powerful assistance to each of its representatives in their efforts not only to maintain, but to improve the position which it occupies in their respective districts.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,
DIGBY JOHNSON,

THE NEWS.

Yesterday's dispatches from Ireland are gloomy and foreboding. The assassination of Lord MONTMORRIS has produced a widespread feeling of insecurity and alarm throughout the kingdom, and it is thought that severe coercive measures will be put in operation to repress what would seem to be a growing spirit of lawlessness. The leaders of the land league are loud in their protestation that the murder is not agrarian; but, rightly or wrongly, the league will have to shouldor a good deal of the odium. It is impossible to say what will be the nature of the coercive measures; but the general disarming of the population and the suppression of incendiary speeches and publications will probably be amongst them. The feeling between the landlord and tenant classes is daily becoming more embittered. The attempt to evict a refractory tenant has cost Lord MONTMORRIS his life, and should these assassinations become frequent scenes may be enacted in the Green Isle of which history furnishes few parallels. Murder, when done in a spirit of wantonness or for the purpose of gain, finds few to applaud it; but when a man has worked his mind up to the belief as he deals the fatal blow that he strikes for hearth and home he becomes, in his own eyes at least, a hero. It is with a people fired with this feeling that the government have to contend in Ireland, and its existence is what will make the task of suppression difficult and dangerous. There is no improvement in Eastern affairs. The Sultan has taken the reins in his own hands and is bent on resistance to the European demands in opposition to the ministers, who are powerless and can do nothing, except conspire for the murder of their illustrious master.

[Per steamer Isabel.]

QUEBEC, Sept. 18.—Judge Routnier gave judgment in the Charlevoix election case, in which S. X. Cimon petitioned for the unseating of Mr. Perrault, and the disqualification of Mr. Perrault and Mr. Tarte on the ground of bribery. The petition was dismissed with costs, and the case will likely be appealed.

OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—The proposed testimonial to Hon. W. Macdougall, M. P., has not taken a partisan form, but has been subscribed to by reformers and conservatives alike. His friends irrespective of politics and the journalistic and legal fraternities have been specially appealed to.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.—In the Court of Appeals to day the writ of error upon which the prisoner Jones, one of those who stole Mr. McNamee's $15,000, hoped to escape, was quashed and the prisoner remanded for trial.

Talleyrand and Milton.

When Talleyrand, a young bishop, but a very old sinner, found France too hot to hold him, during the second period of the revolution, he fled to England, and having adequate introductions, was befriended by Bentham. Thence he went to the United States, and as soon as order, or at least safety to all, including himself, was restored in France, he returned home, made himself useful, and rose to great secular dignities, having been, as he avowed, when charged with political perfidy, consistently faithful to constitution and every dynasty, as long as it could maintain itself. Many years afterwards he visited England in an official capacity, and called on Bentham, who was then a very old man. Bentham invited him to dinner, at one of those banquets of his in which the number of guests was limited to four persons, and Tallyrand came. In the garden was a house which it was believed that Milton had inhabited when he was Latin secretary to Cromwell. The fact was duly notified by a marble tablet, and it was Bentham's custom to make any new guest, on walking round his garden, do becoming reverance to the memory of Milton. He had probably forgotten who Talleyrand had been, and had not troubled himself with learning what he had become. So he bade his guest go through the homage which was duly performed. It is easy to conceive a more ludicrous ceremony than the spectacle of a great diplomatist, with a game leg, going down on his knees, at the bidding of an ancient and sage recluse before a marble tablet commemorating the career of an Englishman of whom not one Frenchman in a thousand has ever heard the name, and not one in a million could by any possibility understand. But Talleyrand submitted.—Temple Bar.

The Title of "Singer" a Trade Mark.

When the Singer sewing machine patents expired in 1877 a number of companies were formed to manufacture "Singer" machines, a prefix being usually added as "New York Singer;" but an Ohio Court has just decided that the word "Singer" is a trade-mark in whose use the courts will protect the original company. A like case has been carried to the House of Lords in England and decided in favor of the Singer Company. —S. F. Bulletin, Aug. 25.

ATROCIOUS BUTCHERY.

[Special to the Oregonian.]

SIERRA CITY, Sept. 25.—The most atrocious murder in the annals of the county was committed on Alfred Smith, a native of the State of New York, aged about 69 years. He was living on the north side of the Sierra valley stage road, about three quarters of a mile from this place. By testimony of the coroner's jury held yesterday evening, we learn the following facts: That Alfred Smith was murdered some time on the evening of the 22d of September about one hundred and twenty feet south of his house on the south side of the road. Large pools of blood with gray hair of the unfortunate old man sticking to the sharp edge of numerous rocks, indicate a most horrible butchery. From there he was dragged down the ravine, and all along the way blood and bunches of gray hair can be plainly seen on sharp rocks. The ravine showed a trace where the old man was finished, as blood was spattered about for twenty feet, and then it seems that he was carried across the road into his house, where his body was deposited in the woodshed with wood piled around and on the body, and the premises given to the flames. A teamster, who was driving up the road about 7 o'clock in the morning, was the first one who brought the news to town. Within a short time the entire population visited the premises. The trunk and head of the old man was all that was left. He was burnt beyond recognition, his arms and legs being completely burned to ashes. A postmortem examination by Dr. J. J. Sawyer disclosed a fracture over the left temple, besides two more on top of the skull. Suspicion of this foul deed is pointed towards his nearest neighbor, T. Devine, a man with whom Alfred Smith has been having a lawsuit for nearly three years, on account of disputed land. Devine was arrested and a coroner's jury brought in a verdict that Alfred Smith was murdered and accused Thomas Devine of committing the crime.

To the Public.

The public is perhaps not aware why the eight English Companies doing business here have suddenly become so patriotic as to publish ("purporting") departmental reports of Canada and paying for them out of their own pockets. When the "PHENIX" of Brooklyn had done business here about a fortnight we received a letter signed by H. S. Mason, Secretary of the eight companies who have hitherto done business here, to adopt the minimum rates. This we declined to do on behalf of the Phenix. Next morning and ever since the papers have been flooded with insurance information which nobody asked for, and which was only put in to prevent people insuring in the Phenix and keep up the high rates hitherto ruling here. As the matter is pretty well ventilated now we wish to inform the public that our Victoria rates are:—For isolated dwellings ¾ per cent. a year or 1½ per cent. for three years, exclusive of city tax,—just half the rate charged for the same risk by the eight companies represented by Mr. Mason.

That the PHENIX stands very high as an honorable company we publish a letter received, unsolicited, from an American fire office in San Francisco.

"We note your advice to the Fire Department of having taken the agency of the PHENIX of Brooklyn, New York. It is a first class company and you will do doubtless a good business for it. We regret for ourselves that there will be a probable cessation of risks from your quarter, but are glad for your sake that so good a company has come your way and wish you lots of luck with it. Yours truly,

"W. J. DUTTON,
"Asst. Sec. Fireman's Fund Ins. Co."

The PHENIX has got a Cash Capital of $2,532,669, which is more than the insured value of all the property in British Columbia, hence there is absolute security. A deposit of $104,000 is made with the Dominion Government.

We have authority to settle all losses in Victoria, and promptly, too, not like one of the advertising companies, which took 3 months to pay a loss incurred less than 2 years ago.

GERMAN CAPITAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Commercial Bulletin says: The Frankfort bankers, it would appear, are included in the Canadian Pacific R. R. syndicate, but to what extent they are committed the public must wait and see, as Sir John A. Macdonald, who has just returned, will condescend to furnish no particulars. The fact, nevertheless, is significant, inasmuch as the investment of German money in the enterprise naturally if not necessarily implies German immigration also to impart value and productiveness to wild lands which lie along the line of road which have been turned over to the syndicate.

ANOTHER LOCAL ACT UPSET.

The Lien Law Pronounced Inoperative.

Woodward vs. Harris and Macdonald.—This action, which was brought under the Lien Act to recover $72 for work done by the plaintiff on a house erected by the defendant Harris, came up for hearing again yesterday before the County Court judge.

Mr. Theodore Davie, who appeared for the plaintiff, at once said that in his opinion the objection raised by Mr. Robertson on behalf of the mortgagee was unanswerable. The objection in question was that the Lien Act was taken from a similar enactment in force in Ontario which gives the lien holder priority over the mortgagee to the extent of the improvements made by the lien holder. The intention of the British Columbia legislative was to do the same thing and they had copied the Ontario section changing only one word. The words of the Ontario section are "such mortgage shall not have priority over the lien," but the words of the British Columbia Act are "such mortgage shall not have PRIVITY over the lien." Whatever the intentions of the legislature may have been the change of words makes the section meaningless, and therefore the mortgagee still has priority as before the Act.

Mr. Davie applied to amend the summons by striking out Mr. Macdonald's name.

Mr. Robertson did not object, but applied for costs.

Mr. Davie thought that Mr. Robertson should apply for costs to the makers of the Act who had caused all the difficulty. It was hard enough for his client to be deprived of the means of recovering remuneration for his work through legislative blunders without being mulcted in costs for the same reason.

The case then proceeded against Harris and resulted in an adjournment so as to allow an inspection of the work sued for.

THE LONDON TIMES ON THE SYNDICATE.

A GLOWING PICTURE.

The Times editorial to-day says: Portions of the Pacific Railway have been begun at an expenditure computed to amount with surveys to five or six millions sterling. At this point, however, the purse or the courage of the Canadian Administration has failed it, and it has appealed to European Capitalists a second time to accept a transfer of the risks and profits. The Prime Minister and his colleagues, who have within the past few weeks been visiting London, sailed for Quebec yesterday, taking back with them the welcome news that they have succeeded in their mission.

A large part of the country traversed is exceedingly rich. The continual increase in British Columbia populousness bids fair to swell the traffic returns yearly more and more. So, too, the stages not only through the fertile belt of Manitoba, but even beyond to the neighborhood of the Rocky Mountains, may be relied upon to grow gradually self-sufficing. Hungry English towns calling out to be nourished from the virgin wheat fields of the Canadian North-West will feed the Pacific railway engines on their passage towards the high land barrier of British Columbia. All these divisions of the line may be shown to be likely to maintain themselves. The warmest advocates of the undertaking do not venture to say so much for the 630 miles between Lake Nipissing and Thunder Bay. By common consent this is the pauper the rest of the family will have to support. The wilds which this section has to traverse may possibly develop unexpected capacities of wealth. In the existing state of information the utmost to be said for its title to a railway is that it is a necessary link in the through traffic between Canada and British Columbia. In summer it is lonely and desolate. What it is in winter, how yet more savage and dreary, none can say with authority, for no Englishman seems to have ventured upon the experience. The through railway is in the bond, it is an element in the basis of the treaty of political union between British Columbia and Canada. No arrangement would be tolerated by the former which would put off to an indefinite future the completion of this unpromising stage of the journey. Vigor in prosecuting the rest would provoke instead of assuaging suspicions.

A very different question is, whether the Dominion would not have been wise to retain for itself this especial burden, and not endeavor to throw it upon European capitalists. If they accept it they will do so solely because they believe the dose to have been sweetened to an extent which will be very costly to Canadian taxpayers; but a State is long-lived and can afford to wait for its profits, provided that when they come they will recoup its losses. Sooner or later the hope is that the Canada Pacific railway will yield a noble profit on the outlay, weighted though it be with the Thunder Bay section. This future net profit the Dominion signs away for monetary emancipation from engineering embarrassments. On the other hand it does not follow that this profit will fall to the shareholders who, as the financier promoters of the undertaking hope, will take the concession off their hands at a handsomely enhanced price. Individual shareholders have to exist upon the proceeds of the enterprises upon which they embark. It is little comfort to them when they are hungering for immediate dividends that the prophetic eye can see thousands of miles of railway studded with villages, farmsteads and cities which have all paid heavily to the company for the ground they stand upon and pay more heavily constantly still in fares for transit to and fro. — London telegram Toronto Globe, Sept. 15.

The Western Slope.

A dispatch from Emory announces the safe arrival there of the gulf-river steamer Western Slope with 115 tons of steel rails from New Westminster. Ought not the successful trips of this steamer to close the mouths of the detractors of the Through to Yale navigation. When the Slope began her trips across the gulf last spring they cried out that she could not reach Yale. After she had reached Yale they declared that she could not perform the same service at high water. When she had stemmed the high water and swam like a fish through the swiftest riffles, they said she could not pass Murderer's Bar in September. Now that she has done everything those people said she could not do, and been everywhere they said she could not go, what fresh task will they assign her? She may not be able to climb a mountain or run down an iceberg; but she has demonstrated that a steamer may be a staunch gulf boat and an efficient river boat as well. The six months' successful service of the W. S. has settled the controversy in favor of the Through to Yale line.

Farewell to the Triumph.

Capt. Markham and the officers of H. M. S. Triumph entertained a numerous party on board last evening. Dancing was kept up until the small hours and both hosts and guests passed the time delightfully. The enjoyment, however, was somewhat lessened by the fact that the noble flagship and her gallant officers and crew are soon to take their departure. No ship that has visited this station has been so generally popular, and Admiral Stirling and his amiable wife have joined heartily in every movement that contributed to the public pleasure and welfare. Everyone who may read this paragraph will wish the Triumph and all connected with her bon voyage and an early return to the station.

BASTION SQUARE.—The contractors for the removal of the rock in this square are successfully performing the work. Every precaution is taken against damage to property when the shots are fired and up to date not a single window in the vicinity has been broken. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a heavy blast was put in and large masses of the rock were detached by the force of the explosion and lifted several feet from their original location. Persons hearing the signal "fire" should give the rock a wide berth for several minutes at least.

STEAMER SAILINGS. — The steamship Idaho sailed at 12:10 o'clock yesterday for San Francisco, carrying away a large freight of salmon, hoops, staves, produce and coal and about 40 passengers. The steamship Empire sailed from the outer harbor at 11 o'clock yesterday for San Francisco with several passengers and a full cargo of Wellington coal. Both vessels were dispatched by Welch, Rithet & Co.

ON TIME.—Ten cases new Fall Novelties, 50 days from London, just received at the White House. *

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

THURSDAY, Sept. 30.

Antonio Marzelle, alias Morelli, charged with committing a felonious assault on a boy named Basso, was again brought up.

Mr. H. C. Courtney, who appeared for the prisoner, submitted that the evidence adduced for the prosecution was insufficient to justify his Honor in committing the prisoner for trial. There appeared to be no definite knowledge of the date of the alleged offence and it was strange that the boy had made no complaint until some six months after it was stated to have taken place. It looked very much as if the case had been trumped up against his client, and he would, therefore, ask for his discharge.

His Honor said that the offence with which the prisoner was charged was a very serious one, and that it was not in his power to dispose of the case summarily. He was of opinion that a prima facie case existed and that a jury should decide as to the prisoner's guilt or innocence. He would, therefore, commit the prisoner for trial.

Wm Selleck, who pleaded guilty to a charge of supplying intoxicating liquor to Indians, was fined $50, to be levied by distress; in default 3 months' imprisonment.

Fredk. Baptiste, on remand, charged with stealing upwards of $200 from the steamer Enterprise on the 2nd of July last.

The prisoner was defended by Mr. H. C. Courtney.

Jack, a Fort Rupert Indian, deposed that he was in this city on the night of July 1st and slept on board the steamer Princess Louise. He knew the steamer Enterprise and was going to New Westminster in her about two months and a half ago. He slept there the night before starting. The prisoner was also on board and told witness that he saw a lady undressing in one of the state-rooms. He (prisoner) then took off his coat and boots and went upstairs again. Witness saw prisoner next morning. A police officer went on board the Enterprise to New Westminster and instituted a search for the money which was lost.

To the Court—Saw the prisoner take off his boots and go up stairs after he had stated that he had seen a white lady getting ready to go to bed.

Billy, an Indian, who was also on board the steamer Enterprise at the time in question, corroborated the evidence of the last witness.

S. Franklyn testified that he knew the two last witnesses and that they were on board at the time the money was reported stolen. The prisoner was employed as a pantry boy and worked upstairs, but had no right to have access to the ladies' cabin. The steward gave the prisoner a good character.

At this stage the prisoner was remanded until Monday next for the production of further evidence for the prosecution.

The Paper Hunt.

The paper hunt which took place yesterday proved a most exciting and enjoyable affair. The meet was at "Stadacona," the residence of Capt. C. T. Dupont, and the field numbered some 25 starters, amongst the ladies being Miss Richards, Miss Crease, Miss S. Crease and Miss M. Gray. The hares, Messrs. D. Finlayson and Hy. Tolmie, gave their pursuers a very lively run, leading them to the vicinity of the Lion Brewery and then doubling back sharply towards the Richmond road, crossing King's field and taking in a blind fence and ditch. This obstacle proved disastrous to a number in the chase, but those who succeeded in clearing it were led at a warm pace through the Rowland and Tolmie properties, the find being eventually made near the Gorge. Mr. M. W. T. Drake was the first in at the death, being closely pressed by Capt. Dupont. Miss Richards and Miss Crease were well ahead during the entire run, which was at least 10 miles, and finished with the leaders. Many of the jumps were very stiff and the pace throughout unusually warm. It is stated that this season's meets will conclude with a steeplechase to take place about three weeks from date.

More Detention.

Yale passengers who arrived by the gulf steamer on Wednesday report that although anxious to reach Victoria they were detained at New Westminster from Monday evening until Wednesday morning awaiting means of conveyance to their destination. The existing service belongs to the age of coaches. This is the railway era, when minutes are of the utmost importance. But when it comes to two days ——!

MAYHEM.—A case of mayhem occurred on board the steamship Hylton Castle whilst she was making her last trip from Departure Bay to San Francisco. It appears that an altercation took place between a coal-passer and a fireman, during which the former seized a large lump of coal intending to throw it at the fireman's head. In self defence the fireman rushed at the coal-passer to take the dangerous missile away from him and in course of a struggle which ensued the latter placed one of the fireman's fingers between his teeth and entirely severed the first joint. On arrival at San Francisco no action was taken as the offence had happened on the high seas and was beyond the jurisdiction of the courts. On returning, however, to this port the injured man swore to an information against his assailant who is still on board the steamship and will be taken into custody at Departure Bay. The complainant will receive treatment at the marine hospital, the nature of the wound rendering amputation of the finger necessary.

PAVILION HALL. — The entertainment given by amateurs of H. M. S. Rocket at Pavilion Hall last evening in aid of the funds of the "Rocket Templar Hall and Reading Room" attracted a numerous and appreciative audience. The programme embraced a variety of songs and recitations, many of which were well rendered and elicited the applause of those present. Mrs. Bushell presided at the piano and played the accompaniments to the vocal solos in her usual faultless manner. Several of the prominent features of the entertainment were omitted owing to the unavoidable absence of some of the company of H. M. S. Triumph, but the concert was nevertheless highly enjoyable and the society for which it was given will derive a welcome augmentation to its funds.

A Good Word for British Columbia.

Mr. F. D. McNamee, President of St. Patrick's Society, who has returned to Montreal from British Columbia, was last night presented with a congratulatory address by the members of the Society. In replying Mr. McNamee pictured British Columbia as a splendid field for emigration and described her advantages as certain to make her a great country.

FROM PUGET SOUND. — The steamer Isabel arrived here at half-past 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Port Townsend with the overland mails and express, five tons of merchandise and a dozen passengers.

GRANITE QUARRY.—Mr. Johnston Robertson returned from a search for a granite quarry on the mainland coast. He found extensive deposits of the best kind of stone opposite Texada Island.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A London dispatch to the Tribune, commenting upon affairs in Ireland, says: Parnell has not assumed the responsibilities of a statesman, but has chosen the less onerous attitude of an agitator. He recommends to tenants the singular method of coercing the innocent for the shortcomings of other people. He advises the punishment of landlords by an act of the government, which resembles his plan of chastising the government for the delinquencies of the Lords. English radicals and other friends of Ireland very much regret the position he has taken, and those not unfriendly to Ireland are anxious to take into account the strong interests and prejudices against England. A real strike against rent will ruin industry, although it is stated that it will have the contrary effect.

DUBLIN, Sept. 28.—The murder of Lord Mountmorris, has excited a feeling of alarm little short of a panic among all respectable classes. Party differences are for the time discarded in the presence of the common and imminent danger. It is said on all sides with equal despondency and bitterness, that there is no longer any security for life and property and nobody can feel safe who ventures to assert his rights or discharge the duties connected with the possession, occupation or management of land, if his acts conflict with the interests or prejudices of those with whom he has to deal. The country is drifting to anarchy. The arm of authority seems paralyzed and the executive utterly helpless. Although at present the panic is felt most keenly by land owners, it is shared by employers of labor, who see the growth of a refractory spirit among the subordinate classes. The scene of the last murder is in a district which is in the very center of the land agitation and is the result of a communistic conspiracy of the worst type. It is idle to pretend that the murder was not agrarian. It is in vain that the land agitators now repudiate all responsibility for the crime. Let them unteach if they can the lessons that for eighteen months they have been impressing upon the ignorant and excitable people. Let them restore if they can the moral sense they have depraved and the conscience they have deadened. Let them endeavor to revive the principles of honesty and instincts of humanity which they have helped to stifle by appeals to the base passions of cupidity and revenge. The country now will hold the agitators accountable for the atrocities which have been the natural result of the inflammatory language which they have delivered and the pernicious doctrines they have taught in any place where they could erect a platform. Peaceable and well disposed people are now alarmed, and look for action on the part of the government.

A tenant farmer named Sweeny, under notice to quit, has been arrested in connection with the murder of Lord Mountmorris.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Parnell, in his speech at the land meeting at New Ross, yesterday, referring to the murder of Boyd some months ago, said with reference to the sad occurrence of the shooting of the land agent in this neighborhood: "I will point out that recourse to such methods of procedure is entirely unnecessary and absolutely prejudicial where there is a suitable organization among tenants. I believe if Kilkenny county had been organized young Boyd would never have been shot, because his father, in the face of strong and organized public opinion, would not have ventured to abuse his rights as a landlord.

The meeting of magistrates which was attended by Lord Mountmorris, just previous to his death, has passed a resolution calling on the government to adopt coercive measures in Ireland.

SCUTARI, Sept. 28. — Advices state that the Turks are prepared to take the offensive in the direction of Podgoritza.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28.—The last note of the porte refusing to surrender Dulcigno unless the naval demonstration was abandoned was in great part the sultan's own composition. It required as a condition for the surrender of Dulcigno not only that the demonstration be abandoned but that no demonstration shall be employed in connection with the Greek frontier or any other question and that no other concession in the future shall be demanded for Montenegro.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Parnell has left New Ross for Dublin, to hold a special meeting of the executive committee of the league, at which a scheme for obtaining more detailed information with regard to the management of estates will be discussed. Parnell does not fear any prosecution against the speakers of the land league, as they doubtless would be abortive.

Information of a plot to blow up the yacht Lavidia was received from St. Petersburg and afterwards from peace officers of Geneva. The nihilists had deputed emissaries to blow up the Lavidia and three individuals left London a few days ago for Glasgow with two nitro glycerine locks to be placed among coals which would explode at a certain time.

No explosives were found on board the czar's yacht Lavidia at Greenock. No arrests and no tangible evidence is known to the public confirmatory of the report of a nihilist plot to destroy the vessel with nitro glycerine.

A dispatch from Mecked reports that Gen. Skobeloff arrived at Bearma with 20 guns. The latest advices from Cabul are that the officers and men of Cabooli regiments of Ayoob's defeated army have reached Cabul and submitted to the ameer.

BERLIN, Sept. 28. — The strike amongst workmen here which began recently with carpenters has now extended to turners, weavers and other workmen and is assuming a serious phase.

Emperor William has completely recovered and gone to Baden.

PARIS, Sept. 28. — Newspapers of various shades of opinion condemn the participation of France in the naval demonstration in Turkish waters.

RAGUSA, Sept. 28.—The question is being discussed whether landing troops would assist the Montenegrins in the occupation of Dulcigno. It is rumored that the Albanians at Scutari have prevented foreign consuls from leaving town. The French commander has declined active participation in hostilities.

GRAVOSA, Sept. 28.—The Turkish frigate at Dulcigno got up steam when the Helicon approached on a reconnoitering expedition, from which it is inferred that the frigate had orders to withdraw on the approach of the combined fleets.

EASTERN STATES.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 25.—Capt. Charles Martin, master of the fishing schooner Martha C, from a grand bank codfishing voyage, reports that his vessel was twice boarded by hostile parties of Newfoundlanders, and fishing operations forbidden. The invaders threatened on the latter occasion to drive the vessel from the grounds. Capt. Martin dared them to interfere and continuing to fish was not molested. He reports hearing that several Newfoundlanders had been arrested by local authorities for interference with American fishermen.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. — A special dispatch to the New York Freeman Journal announces that the pope has named Dr. Michael Carrigan, now bishop of Newark, N. J., to be coadjutor of the archbishop of New York with the right of succession and with the title of Archbishop of Partibus Infidelium.

WARREN, Pa., Sept. 28. — General Grant addressed a large audience here to-night. He announced himself a republican and called on his hearers to eject Hancock.

WHEELING, Sept. 28.—Blaine spoke here this afternoon to nearly ten thousand people. He said:—If you elect Hancock you will inevitably within the space of twelve months (I am not sure that it would not be within 90 days) hand over to the democratic party led by southern men the absolute control of the supreme court of the United States. Five of these judges are to-day beyond seventy or in that neighborhood. They may accept retirement at full pay. If they are reluctant to do so a democratic president backed by a democratic senate and house would swamp the courts by superior numbers. He denounced interference of English clubs and associations in our affairs by sending free trade tracts over here for circulation, saying that he thought that President Hayes would be justified in instructing Secretary Evarts to protest against such a flagrant breech of international courtesy. Referring to Maine he said if she hadn't set the country a good example she had given them a terrible warning.

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 28.—Clarence Gray, the assassin of Theodore Glancey, is committed to jail on a charge of murder, without bail. The following is an extract from the Press of to-day:

At 2 o'clock p.m. Saturday last Gray met Glancey on State street in front of the Occidental hotel and inquired if he was responsible for the article referring to him (Gray) in the Daily Press of the day previous, to which Mr. Glancey replied in the affirmative, whereupon Gray attempted to draw a revolver, when Glancey sprang forward and taking Gray by the wrists said: "You shall not draw a revolver on me, I am unarmed." At this instant a bystander interfered and separated them, when Gray instantly drew his revolver and Glancey retreated into the Occidental hotel, and while attempting to close the door he was fired upon by Gray with a large revolver, the ball passing through his right arm, near the wrist, and entering the abdomen near the navel, and passing out of the left side a little above the hip bone.

THE FRANKLIN RELICS.

WHAT SCHWATKA SAW AMID THE ICE FIELDS.

Several Skeletons Found.

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Herald's continuation of the story of Schwatka's arctic expedition presents some points of thrilling interest. The writer says:

On the 27th of September a heavy snow storm set in and next morning the snow was knee deep on a level of the ice. A winter wind soon blew around and packed it down so as to be almost solid. On the 14th of October sledging was sufficiently good for Toolooah to go to Cape Herschel and Terror bay for a sled and other articles that were left there during the summer for want of transportation. Toolooah exchanged wives with Joe for the trip, a very usual and convenient custom among Esquimaux. Ice was sufficiently strong for reindeer to commence crossing to the mainland about the 1st of October, and in a few days their number had preceptibly diminished, and after the 14th we saw none at all. On Oct. 1st Lieut. Schwatka, Joe and I started to get supplies of fish to last until the reindeer country was reached. We did not succeed in getting further than about 30 miles from camp owing to heavy sleds and the dogs being so fat that they were lazy. We only reached the native camp near Sherman Inlet on the 12th. There was quite a large camp of Esquimaux on Big Lake, the largest camp we had yet seen. The sled was pulling heavily and slowly across the lake, and I went ahead toward the Igloos. All the men were standing outside awaiting our arrival, and among them were some Nitchilliks we had met during the spring. As soon as they recognized us, they set up a great shout of welcome. They seemed very glad we were coming among them again and hurried me into the big Igloo while most of the men ran out and helped the sledmen. They built our Igloo in short order, and during the time we were with them, did everything in their power to contribute to our comfort. We found but few interesting relics among them, and only a piece of the bow found in Wilmot bay after the big ship sank, and part of the block branded either "10" or "or" with part of the "r" obliterated. If the ship's blocks were branded with the name of the vessel to which they were attached these would be important as establishing the identity of the ship that drifted down as the Terror. We found among them a piece of wax candle that they had preserved all these years, while every scrap of paper had perished. We met a sled with a few natives coming from Kigmuktoo to join the rest of the tribe, and with them was an aged crone named Sooloðah, who had seen white men in Boothia isthmus when a young woman, and had also been with a party who found the boat and skeletons in Starvation cove, near Richardson point. She confirmed the previous testimony.

We marched in a southeast direction on the inlet five days, during which we traveled upon it about 45 miles, and when we left I could still see it running in a southerly direction for about 10 or 15 miles further. The sun was so low now that we had neither sunrise nor sunset; during the whole time it was above the horizon. About five miles inland from Starvation cove the natives had found during the summer the skeleton of a whiteman, which no one had ever seen before. On my way down Henry visited the place and erected a monument over the remains. Pieces of clothing found indicated deceased was a sailor, not an officer. The finning of thif grave is worthy of notide as showing that the natives were thoroughly aroused by our visit and its object. We had promised liberal rewards for everything of importance found and for valuable information and were always particular to keep our promises. The consequence was that they greatly aided us by searching everywhere withig reach of their hunting grounds.

The largest number of fish caught here are something like very large herring, and the flesh much coarser than salmon or trout. We bought several bags of salmon from the natives, which we used as long as they lasted as a substitute for reindeer. The weather was 62 deg. below Fahrenheit. Before reaching Depot island we lost 27 dogs of privation. On Dec. 28th, the thermometer ranged from 64 to 69 deg. below. The lowest point reached was 101 deg. below freezing point. Our meat had to be eaten cold, that is frozen so solid that it had to be sawed and then broken into convenient sized lumps, which, when first put into the mouth were like stones. Some meat was cooked with moss gathered from the hillsides under the snow, which was beaten off with sticks. The country began to swarm with wolves now as well as with reindeer, and we would meet them daily. Often they would come close to the Igloos, and one night Toolooah shot one of three that were eating with our dogs the meat he had thrown out for food. They killed and ate four dogs and attacked him when he went out of the Igloo to drive them off. He killed two of his assailants with his rifle, and two others by the most infernal trap ever devised. He set two keenly sharpened knife blades in the ice and covered them with blood which the wolves licked, at the same time slicing their tongues, the cold keeping them from feeling the wounds at the time and their own warm blood tempting them to continue until their tongues were so scarified that death was inevitable.

The mean temperature of the past month had been 44 degrees below freezing. We still knew nothing about Hudson Bay.

The great question with us was, "Were any ships in the bay?" At any rate we felt sure of finding our hard bread, pork and molasses together with some other provisions that Captain Barry said he could spare and would leave with Aroma, the native, who had charge of our stuff at Depot Island. The prospects of again eating some civilized food were most cheering. We soon arrived in sight of Depot island and looked anxiously for sledge tracks, which we felt would be abundant here if ships were near by. At noon we were within four or five miles of the island and some natives on the ice in the dim distance. Then all was excitement in our party and it increased as the distance diminished. At last the sledges drew near enough to recognize Aroma, who was hastening up to us ahead of other. From Aroma we learned that there was one ship in the bay and that it was at Marble Harbor and furthermore there were no provisions for us at Depot island. This seemed quite incomprehensible to us as Capt. Barry had about a thousand pounds of hard bread on board that belonged to us, besides some other provisions, and had promised to leave them with Aroma at Depot island for us, well knowing that we would need them. We found the note from Capt. Fisher, giving some excuse for not leaving some things we had expected. The inevitable conclusion was that Barry had absolutely gone away with the food for us without a word of explanation, though he had landed at Depot island and taken off the casks that held our bread when we came ashore.

Storm and wind now kept builders in doors and with short rations their condition began to grow desperate. It was a mournful camp. After the hunters got in Friday empty-handed they all felt that danger again threatened them as it had done twice before during the winter when they had to kill and eat some of their starving dogs. People spoke to each other in whispers and everything was quiet save for the neverceasing and piteous cries of hungry children begging for food which their parents could not give them. Most of the time I stayed in bed trying to keep warm and avoid exercise that I would only make me more hungry. It was impossible to keep warm this night and my aching limbs drove sleep from my eyes. The wind was from the east Saturday and a little better for hunting. So the men were off bright and early. About noon there was a joyful sound in camp. Women and children ran into our camp shouting "walrus killed" and fairly jumped up and down in their joy.

I reached the George and Mary (ship on the Marble Island) on the 21st and was kindly received. During the year we were absent from civilization we traveled 2819 geographical miles, or 3252 statute miles, by sledges over entirely unexplored country. Through the entire course of an Arctic winter regarded by the natives as exceptionally cold the party successfully withstood the lowest temperature experienced by white men, recording one observation of 71 degrees Fahrenheit, 16 days whose average was 100 degrees below freezing point and 27 which registered below 6 degrees Fahrenheit, during most of which the party traveled. In fact the expedition never took the cold into consideration or halted a single day on that account. During the entire journey its reliance for food both for man and beast may be said to have been solely upon the resources of the country, as the expedition started with less than a month's rations, and it is the first in which the white men of the expedition voluntarily lived exclusively upon the same fare as its Esquimaux assistants, thus showing that white men can safely adapt themselves to the climate and life of the Esquimaux and prosecute their journeys in any season or under any circumstances as well as natives of the country themselves. The expedition was first to make the summer search over a route of the lost crews of the Erebus and Terror, and while so doing buried the remains of every member of the ill-fated party above ground. The most important direct result of the labors of the expedition will undoubtedly be considered as establishing the loss of the Franklin records at the boat place in Starvation Cove, and as ever since Dr. Ross' expedition of 1854, which ascertained the fate of the party, the recovery of the records has been the main object of subsequent exploring, in this direction the history of the Franklin expedition may now be considered at a close. As ascertaining the fate of the party was not so gratifying as would have been the rescue or relief of any member thereof, so it is in establishing the fate of the record of their labors. Next in importance to their recovery must be considered the knowledge of their irrecoverable loss.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IN ANSWER TO MR. CLAY'S "CAUTION TO Saloon Keepers," I beg to state that I had no intention of pleading the "Tippling Act," and told him so previous to the case being called; but in his account were charges amounting to over $20 for goods which I am prepared to swear were never ordered nor received by myself nor any member of my family. My lawyer, therefore, thought it perfectly justifiable to plead the "Tippling Act," which reduced the amount by $14. I have now paid Mr. Clay more than $6 above what was due to him. I leave the public to judge if I was not justified, under the circumstances, in pleading the Act as a set-off to Mr. Clay's attempt to obtain payment for goods which had never left his store.
